

Life does not travel in a straight path. During childhood one would not care about anything, where every moment was the moment of happiness and joyfulness. But, as one stepped towards adolescent, one realized the weight of grand realities. Dreams of the past that was once imagined some times becomes reality while sometime impossible. Those who learn from their mistakes of their past, they strengthen the base of their future. Admire the present because our present moment can change our destiny. Remember, time does not wait for any body. But, those who value time, they achieve the road to success.
