QUESTION - 7

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

04/10

Do not attempt word by word

Avoid cutting and overwriting

Some of the students of competitive examination use to think that they will become toppers merely by staring at the cover of the book or putting their notes under the pillow in the night. They are the people who search for the references even in the papers, ~~and~~ after just two days of preparation. The truth is that neither anyone has a "magic wand" nor the "short cut" of success. ~~Remarkable~~ If remarkable results are required, then the remarkable hardwork is also required. So next time, when you are holding a "cup of tea" and thinking "either I should study or not", remember at ~~the~~^{the} time that the success doesn't comes from fun ~~of~~ but by hardwork.

success doesn't come from shortcuts, it comes from rolling up your sleeves and putting in the hard yards!
