

35

(Question No.2)

1. Introduction:

26th amendment was passed on 21st Oct. 2024. It is 26th amendment in 1973 constitution of Pakistan also called "Constitution package". It has been remained fast controversy among politicians, parliament, executive, judiciary, and citizens. 26th amendment aimed at bringing reforms in judicial commission of Pakistan and judiciary undermining judiciary independence. At first 56 amendments were proposed but 27 were being made. According to critics, it has undermined the independence of judiciary at the cost of political interests.

E.5

"26 amendment of Pakistan:
A blow to independence
of judiciary."

[International Commission of Justice, ICIJ)

2 Main contours of recently passed 26th Constitutional Amendment in Pakistan - in context of Independence of Judiciary:

1) Restructuring of Judicial Commission of Pakistan plays a pivotal shift amplifying influence of executive over judiciary - diminishing independence
of judiciary:

• The 26th amendment has brought changes

35 in JCP by giving authority to Executive have a "greater say" in judiciary.

Previous JCP	Now JCP
i) Chief justice of Pakistan	i) Chief justice of Pakistan
ii) 5 senior most judges	ii) 3 senior most judges
iii) Federal Law Minister	(iii) one senior judge of constitutional bench
iv) Attorney General of Pakistan	iv) 3 members from executive
v) 3 members from executive	(vi) 4 from legislature
vi) Nominee from Pakistan bar council.	2 2 N.L. Senate (vii) Speaker will nominate the Custodian from the house - women or minorities

3.15

(ii) Establishment of constitutional benches related to the hearing of constitution concern and political cases - another avenue to decrease the judicial independence:

Also mention the article numbers amended as references

In 26th amendment, constitutional benches were set up, they will hear the cases of political and constitution concern. Earlier to this, this power was under Supreme Court of Pakistan. It was a clear-cut avenue to undermine the independence of judiciary.

(iii) Taking the power of Sui-moto from judiciary - a hit to its independence

Q5

"Artical 184"; suo-moto power was taken away from the judiciary. Now judiciary can not take suo-moto on any serious issue or issue regarding human right violation.

(iv) Expansion of Special Parliamentary Committee; including more members from executive which has eroded the spirit of independence of judiciary:

In 26th amendment, Special Parliamentary Committee's members were increased from 8 to 12 members.

It means that there is inclusion of executive which has eroded the spirit of judiciary independence.

Special Parliamentary Committee Structure

: Est

12 members

8 NA

4 Senate

Two third majority is necessary during meeting or nomination of judge of supreme court

(v) Changes in article 175A - appointment of Chief Justice of Pakistan:

Chief Justice of Pakistan is now formed from top 3 senior most judges. The prime minister will select and give the name to the president to do signature in it.

(vi) Accentuated the administration of JCP through constitutional benches:

Est

JCP's powers has been reduced due^{to} the establishment of 'constitutional bences' because now they will manage the cases or matter of political interests and their judge will be nominated from the prime minister of Pakistan.

Constitutional bences

(vii) Transfer of cases under article '186 A' - given power to Supreme court.

Now Supreme court can transfer the case from one high court to another or to itself if the case or verdict has been long pending in the court.

(viii) Decreasing the term of Chief Justice of Pakistan:

The term of chief justice of Pakistan has been reduced to 3 years

(ix) Modification in Judicial Commission of Pakistan:

(a) Direct nomination to the PM:

JCP ^{will} now select the name of the judge and send it to the PM. Omitting the ^{old} members of ^{Special} Parliamentary Committee.

(b) Granting Powers to JCP to evaluate the courts:

JCP was granted to evaluate the performance of Supreme court and high court annually.

(x) Elimination of riba:

Article 38, it was said to the complete elimination of riba on 1 January 2028.

(xi) Right to clean environment,
healthy environment,

In article 9A, it was said that it is the right of every citizen to breath in clean environment.

at drawing part (d)

(xii) Amendment to article

203 D:

Federal Shariat will conduct the law that it is not against Islamic principles.

(xiii) Amendment to article

48. weakening judiciary:

Anything that is passed by the PM or cabinet would not be questioned in any court.

3. Conclusion:

To conclude, it can be 35 said that 26th amendment is aimed to bring reforms in judiciary but in fact it has made judiciary and CJP "a toothless tiger" 26th amendment has undermined

the independence of judiciary.

"The modification within the constitutional amendments bring an extraordinary level of political influence over judicial appointment and judiciary's own administration."

[Santiago Canton,
Secretary General
of ICJ]

(Question No. 1)

1. Introduction:

Pakistan is a country of diversity. Pakistan's political culture is marred with extreme polarization due to its different ethnic groups, political parties, religious and extremist groups, and minority groups. Political polarization has damaged the very fabric of the democracy. Pakistan's polarization is also recognized with sectarian division. Political polarization is due to various reasons.

"The worst evils which mankind has ever had to endure were inflicted by bad governments, but the vilest and most distressing of all is the

:Ex

Polarization and fragmentation of one's own people.

[Allama Iqbal - K.K. Azin,
The Pakistan Movement
and the Indian Muslim]

2. ^{Political} Pakistan's culture being marrred by extreme polarization.

(i) Military intervention in democratic culture of Pakistan:

It is Pakistan's long history that the fabric of democracy was being damaged by the military intervention.

There has been more than 30 years rule of military.

The rest of years, military has kept footprints in political. Resultantly, it gave way to the political polarization in Pakistan.

(iii) Unsuccessful democratic governments in the history of Pakistan - gives rise to political polarization;

There have been twenty three prime ministers in Pakistan till its independence, none of these has completed his tenure. Three prime ministers were ousted by military. This has created unrest among the public, organizing their own group in order to fulfill their objectives.

(iv) Unchecked and biased media, igniting the certain political groups:

35

Pakistan's media is unchecked
Due to it, Pakistan's society has been disfigured

(iii) Linguistic, ethnic and extremism divides:

Pakistan is multi-ethnic and multi-lingual country, with different extremists groups.
All these have their own objectives and separate identities.
However, these differences have often been exploited by politicians to create divisions and fuel polarization.

(iv) Personalities-based politics in Pakistan:

Personalities-based politics in Pakistan add fuel to the fine ; creating divide among public and politics.

Add more arguments in this part

3. Way forward for a politically polarized culture.

(i) Fostering dialogues and tolerance among different sects of the society:

There is need to foster dialogue among the different sects, ethnic groups, political parties, and religious group to come on single page for country's progress.

(ii) Check on media:

There should be proper check on media so that political environment would be 315 remained save from polarization

(iii) Strengthening democratic institutions of Pakistan:

Pakistan's government should strengthen the democratic institutions to save them from polarization.

Conclusion:

To conclude, it can be said that there are several factors contributing to ignite political polarization in Pakistan. So it is dire need to find ways and act upon above remedies to save Pakistan's culture from being polarized.