

QUESTION NO. 3

Write the most Opposite word.

ANSWER

- 1) Transgression: Observance ✓
- 2) Enervate: Energize ✓
- 3) Flout: Accept ✓
- 4) Coagulate: Dilute ✓
- 5) Daunt: Encourage ✓
- 6) Bolster: Weaken ✓
- 7) Amalgamate: Separate ✓
- 8) Propitious: Hopeless ✓
- 9) Prodigious: Small ✓
- 10) Intimidate: Encourage ✓ 10

QUESTION NO. 2

Q1: How does sensationalism in media contribute to public confusion about facts?

Ans: In this era of technology advancement the sudden unfolding of information via various sources leads to confusion among the public to categorize the valid information. Sensationalist media focuses on "being first" instead of "being authentic" which results in distortion on facts and giving rise to confusion among the public.

Q2: What impact does media's framing of issues have on people's ability to understand complex topics?

Ans: Media highlights the issue in front of public in framework to make it simple for them to understand. However, the simplification leads to exclusion of different narratives and viewpoints, due to which it is difficult for the public to understand the issue by looking from different lenses. Therefore, this attempt of simplification increases the confusion instead of mitigating.

Q3: How does constant exposure to information in the 24/7 news cycle affect critical thinking?

Ans: The modern era of globalization has interconnected and integrated the world leading to continuous exchange of news among the states. The continuous news updates overload the information for the people which undermines the skill of critical thinking among upon specific issues. The news bombardment also upheavels the public creating confusion in unfolding the facts.

DATE: ___/___/___

Qy: In what ways do conflicting cultural messages from media influence social expectations?

Ans: Some media outlets prioritize sensationalism and highlight unrealistic and conflicting cultural messages. Such information strategy focuses on increasing viewership and giving rise to controversies among the society.

X This further leads to a disturbed society and the society than has limited to no expectations from the media outlets. Hence, media outlets who highlight altered facts loose the trust of the society.