

Introduction

No heading in an essay

No outline?

"The era of global warming has ended" and "the era of global boiling has arrived."

Quotation irrelevant to the context

Make the quotes part of the introduction. Don't write it separately.

UN Secretary
Antonio Guterres

The transition from "global warming" to "global boiling" refers to the increasing severity and intensity of climate change impacts, particularly to global warming. Global warming refers to a long-term rise in earth's average surface temperature due to human activities, and climate change due to disturbance of natural forces. Contrary to the argument posed by climate change deniers, global warming is not expensive hoax, but a present-day, scientifically proven reality with catastrophic effects on global ecosystem, weather patterns and human life environment. The Reality of the global warming is going to be

Don't explain your quote

Thesis statement simply refutes the environmental claim not the economic claim discussed with scientific evidences, its impacts, by removing its myths and misconceptions its real economic costs and to global warming responsibility for addressing global warming.

Not a proper and structured intro
It should be 200-250 words.