(Q): Islamabad - Kabul tensions dingers on due to TTP using Afghan land as a launching pad for terrorist attacks in Pakistan. Critically evaluate the situation.

A Introduction:

When the Taliban returned to power in Afghanistan three years ago, Pakistani policymaker assumed this would help to guarantee the stability of the country western border. That has long been a strategic compulsion given Pakistan's given Pakistan troubled relation with India on its eastern flank. But the assumption about securing the border with Afghanistan turned out to be a strategic miscalculation. This resurgence of terrorist attack in Pakistan has a devastating impact. The Taliban's unwillingness to take action against the TTP upended Pakistan's expectation that Kabul be responsive to Pakistan's security concerns.

B Main factors in the resurgence of terrorist outfit:

The Doha agreement between US and Taliban aimed to ensure stability and peace across border. The Taliban committed to preventing any group or individual from using Afghan soil to threaten the security of United States and its allies. However besides all the assurance in agreement, Afghanistan is never for Al-Qaeda, TTP, BLA, IMU, ISKP.

According to UNSC report: Terrorist group enjoy greater freedom in afghan than at anytime in recent history.

2 The afghan Taliban have close ideological affiliation with the terrorist group and They are not willing to go against them.

3 India is also using Afghanistan soil against pakistan by establishing proxy for strategic purpose.

4 In 2014, pakistan removed TTP through Zarb-i-Azeb operation, However after the US withdraw, they saw a ray of hope in Afghanistan.

C TTP demands from pakistan:

TTP wants to reestablish their rule in the tribal areas of pakistan, hence they demand the withdrawal of Pakistani troops from those areas especially ex-FATA. In addition to the they also desire to establish the "Emirate of Waziristan".

d Implications of TTP resurgence on Pakistan:

i) There was a significant surge in cross-border terrorist attacks by TTP last year and rise in casualties of law-enforcement personnel, which heightened

The security challenge for Pakistan.

As it is stated by Maseeha Soofi; "not" 2024 was the deadliest year with the highest number of casualties in terrorist attacks in almost a decade. The TTP's activities in regions like Ichker-Pakhtunkhwa and Balochistan, which are crucial for CPEC projects, create a security challenges. China warned Pakistan to address its security challenges or else it will be difficult to continue this project crucial for Pakistan's economic growth.

(ii) It has limited Pakistan's options for economic engagement in the region in more ways than one.

(iv) It is reported by DAWN NEWS that A total of 306 terrorist attacks took place in Pakistan in the year including 28 suicide bombings which killed 693 people and injured 1,224 others.

E Recommendation for addressing the issue

There are number of steps which needs to taken to address the challenging situation between Pakistan and Afghanistan to combat terrorism.

- (1) Convince Taliban to take effective measure to identify and neutralize terrorist organization.
- (2) cooperate in completing connectivity projects such as: Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India-pipeline (TAPI),
