

Test 2:Qno 1:Translation of the passage:

Life never takes a straight path. When we were stress free in our childhood, every moment felt happy and playful. But when we enter into adulthood, the burden of reality made us realise about our responsibilities.

6 The dreams of past that we looked upon, sometimes became reality and sometimes far away stars. The people who learn from the mistakes of past, build a strong base for their future. Value the present, because the moment that we have right now can change our fate. Remember that time waits for none, however, time always open the doors of success for the one who values it.
