2)	MAIN CAUSES OF THE U.S CIVIL WAR:
1)	SLAVERY:
	The most significant and contentions issue was the slavery issue. The Southern states' economies were heavily dependent on slave labor, padicularly in agriculture (cotton and tobacco). The North, with a more also reated friction, with the	1, south opposing high tariffs that benegitted Northern inclustries but increased the costs of goods in South.

	This led do the tensions between tue Northen and the Southern states.
4)	SECTIONALISM: .
	Cultival and ideological divides between southern and worthern states enaccibated tensions. The South Newed it self as culturally distinct , with a way of life centered around agriculture and social hierarchy,	(2 while the North emphasized upon freedom, reform and molustrialization.

	The rise of abotionalist movement in the Nosth and events like the publication of Uncle Tom's Cabin (1852)	ļ and John Brown's raid on Harpes Ferry (1859) inflamed public opinion. Mora over, the election of Abraham Lincoln (1360), seen by	(I) the South as a threat to slavery, prompted the secession of Southern States
