: Master of Political Stage

Politicians are epitome of selfishness

06/20

Politicians are nothing but self-centred people. Whenever politicians are questioned they use intricate vocabulary to avoid telling truth and to hide their motives leaving enquirer with word salad only. Politicians make promises as much as they can before election but forget all promises after election. People are amused by their acting bits as politicians portray emotions better than actors and do photo-op better than models for their own advantage.
Politicians do whatever it takes to save themselves even abandoning

Make short and simple sentences shifting ideologies for self-preservation their ideologies. Political leaders benefit ultimately, leadership in politics is more about perfecting the art of performance than genuinely serving the people.
