Q1

A. Issue Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is different and unique capability of an athlete, strong mindset and humbleness are qualities of him. There are four elements of sportsmanship which are important for players. If that elements stumbled then cause conflict and birth two types of losers, one is sore loser and another one is bad winner. In modern time, competition is high which is responsible for reducing level of sportsmanship. In elite sports, players usually get huge importance, fan and reputation and this is the reason of their cheating for winning sports, and this kind of an individual called "sore loser"; who always other for his loss and deny to accept defeat. On the other hand, bad winner believe in showing off his supremacy who is victim of superiority complex, and show others as inferior. These both are lacking in sportsmanship. Leslie Howe described that whether
