

ANSWER: 5

1. INTRODUCTION

India and Pakistan engaged in war when India attacked first on Pakistan after the Phalgar incident. However, ceasefire has occurred via the US. Then both the countries engaged in post conflict diplomatic drives. These diplomatic drives are not fruitful as show by the India's behaviour, still abrogation of indus water treaty, continuation of issues, hate speeches by PM Narendra Modi and continuation of firing at borders.

2. BACKGROUND OF PAKISTAN AND INDIA CONFLICT

India attacked first on Pakistan as they held Pakistan responsible the Phalgar ~~atta~~ incident.

Pakistan retaliate this attack by using their right of defense. Resultantly, Pakistan shot down indian jets. Both Pakistan and India decided to ceasefire on the negotiation by the President of the US Donald Trump.

3. POST CONFLICT DIPLOMATIC DRIVES OF PAKISTAN AND INDIA

After a successful ceasefire both countries engaged in diplomatic drives. However, post conflict diplomatic drives of Pakistan and India has not been seemed much fruitful by because of the reasons mentioned one by one.

(a) India's Abrogation of Indus Water Treaty

Abrogation of Indus water treaty by India one sidedly show that India still not want to engage in diplomatic ties but still wanted war.

(b) Continuation of issues

Post conflict diplomatic drives of Pakistan and India are not fruitful as after the ~~war~~ war ceasefire occurred but diplomatically unable to solve the issues like Kashmir issue and other.

(c) Hate speeches by Prime Minister of ~~India~~ India

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi is still engage in spreading hate speeches against Pakistan. ~~correct~~ He through his media spreading misinformation so diplomacy can not occur through one party. Due to this post conflict diplomatic ties are not fruitful.

(d) firing at Border

Even after ceasing the firing at the border is continued. Both countries Pak and India unable to stop firing at the border. This shows their lack of diplomacy.

4. Conclusion:

In nutshell, Pakistan and India's post conflict drives are not fruitful as both Pakistan and India are ~~now~~ engaged in ~~war~~ conflict. ~~at border~~ This behavior is showed by India's one sided abrogation of Indus water treaty, continuation of conflicts, hate speeches by Indian Prime minister and continuation of firing at border.
