Q.2 Precis :

"The Illusion of Progress"

In every of civilizations in all eras have presented themselves as progressive, often superficially. The modern temper, the speed, invention etc. are cultivated. Places of glass and steel rise fortunes are conj. Amid modern wealth and progress, people are blinded by abundance and fail to see the hidden poverty that comes with it. Amid this dazzling chaos, the most serious decline has occurred, values once based on character and honour now privilege wealth over time. The learning, homes are high impulses and the dignity of the material advantage. Human dealings are benefited by the currency. They built the trust between neighbours and neighbours. Honesty, humanity is main part of every process. New century, advance mechanism made a man to proud and learning techniques, so this achievement are the basic character. And this interrupts the progress and merely light and brilliant of its own prosperity.
