

Q4. Correct Sentences

- ① She would rather read ^a book than watching television.

She would read a book rather than watching television

- ② Not only he was a thief but he was also a murderer.

He was not only a thief but also a murderer.

- ③ A five feet long snake was killed by the villagers.

A five foot long snake was killed by the villagers.

- ④ He had better spoken the truth or he will be punished.

He had better speak the truth or he will be punished.

- ⑤ Standing in the line, a thunderstorm could be heard.

A thunderstorm could be heard while standing in the line.

Q5 Punctuation

(A)

As the rain poured down over the flooded city, Adeel whispered to his friend: "Did you hear what the mayor said today?" His friend looked puzzled, and asked "What did he say?"

Adeel replied, "He said we ignored warnings for years and now the city is paying the price. Those were his exact words". People around them sighed, and one man muttered, "it is strange how leaders only speak the truth when disaster strikes"

(B)

Prepositions:

1. The glass break into pieces.
2. She is married to him
3. Prop this cycle against the wall
4. She is sitting in the shade of the tree
5. The policy was conceived by the auspices of international consortium.

Q6. Idioms.

① Cry over the split milk:

When a government makes flawed policies, later or sooner it cries over the split milk.

② Build castle in the air:

Making rational policies without practical application is like building castle in the air.

Q7. Translation

Margaret is an old woman who regularly goes to the train station of London just to ^{listen to the} announcement of "Mind the gap" in the voice of her deceased husband. This announcement was recorded in year 1970 and after the demise of Oswald, Margaret listened to it feel close to her husband.

In 2012, when this voice was changed through electronic recording, Margaret contacted Transport for London. When the ^{institutional} realized her emotions.

they restored her husband's voice at the station. Now, everyday, the announcement is made in the same lovely voice.

Comprehension

① Why did Arab leaders change their mind. ?

Arab leaders changed their attitude towards Pakistan because of Pakistan's mindblowing response to Indian airstrikes on May 10th, 2025. Pakistan's defense not only shot down 5 Rafales but hijacked enemy's command system. This brought drastic shift in Arab leaders who previously looked down upon ^{Pakistan} started to revere it as their strategic partner.

2. How did blackout ?

The blackout caused by Pakistan efficient cyber system in New Delhi left a staggering impact. The Indians were psychologically intimidated, panicked, and surprised.

③ If Pakistan had not launched cyberattacks in India after the missile air strike, the conflict would still have ended up in decisive victory of Pakistan. It is just that digital warfare handicapped Indian air defence system and create a deterrence so without it the conflict would have run comparatively longer.

④ The passage describes the digital warfare as more decisive as compared to traditional military. This is because digital warfare can take over, silence and paralyze the traditional military tools. ~~(traditional) equipment can't obliterate digital tools.~~

⑤ If viewed as the turning point, the 10 May 2025 military standoff shows that "power" no longer means mere traditional military arms. Rather, it means the the mastery in cyber warfare.

and digital tools. and the ability to give digital blows to the enemy.

Q2. Precis:

Title: The Tyranny of Wealth
Precis word count = 100

In every era, civilization progresses in infrastructure and innovations.
The progress is made in such a way that the apparent grandeur conceals the grassroots lacking in human conscience. Money is valued more than virtue. The intellectuals bartered their knowledge and skills for money.
Expertise, Skills and even affection is judged based on monetary benefit.
This established a tyranny of wealth which led to trustlessness and moral degradation of intellectuals at the hands of greed. The new century has made man oblivious of his inner-self. Man has comfort, but no satisfaction.
The humanity will continue to deteriorate until moral sense prevails.