

QNO:4 correct 5 of the following

i) He had better spoken the truth ~~or~~ he will be punished.

He better speak the truth or he will be punished. ~~or~~
He better spoke the truth ~~or~~ he would be punished.
2) She would rather read a book than watching television.

She would rather read a book than ~~watching~~ a television.

3) A five feet long snake was killed by the villagers.

A five foot long snake was killed by the villagers.

4) Not only he was a thief but he was also a murderer.

He was not only a thief but also a murderer.

5) He resigned from the post.

He resigned from post.

OR
he resigned from his post.

QNO:4 A- Punctualē the following Passage.

As the rain poured down over the flooded city, Adeel whispered to his friend, "Did you hear what the mayor said today?". His friend looked puzzled and asked, "What did he say?". Adeel replied, "He said we ignored warnings for years and now the city is paying the price, those were his exact words". People around them sighed and one man muttered, "It is strange, that how leaders only speak the truth when disasters strike".

QNO: 5 B Re-write the following sentences with the appropriate prepositions.

1 The glass break into pieces.

2 She is married to him.

3 Prop this bicycle against the wall.

4 He is sitting under the shade
of tree.

QNO:7 Translate the following
into English

Margaret, an old woman who ~~daily~~ used to visit London's Ambiskmen train station just to hear the announcement, "mind the Gap" in the voice of his departed husband Oswald Lawrence. This announcement was recorded in the year 1970 and after the death of Oswald, Margaret used to feel the presence of her husband by listening to it. In 2012 when this voice was ~~attested~~ through electronic replaced ~~the~~ by electronic recording. Margaret contacted ~~the~~ voice for London. When the department got aware of her emotions, they replaced the voice back to that of her husband's voice at Ambiskmen train station. Now the announcement happens there daily in that voice filled with love.

Q No: 3 Answer the questions that follows after reading
the comprehension following Passage.

Q No: 1 Why did Arab leaders
change their attitude
after the conflict?

The sudden outbreak of hostilities between India and Pakistan on May 10, 2025 marked a watershed moment in the history of South Asian conflict. Pakistan not only showed its military capabilities by shooting down five Indian Rafales but also showed its mastery in digital warfare. This led to change in the attitude of Arab leaders who were impressed by Pakistan's mastery of digital warfare and its disciplined conduct, began to regard jean and panic Rajales never dared to fly again.

QNO: 3 If Pakistan had not launched digital warfare
after the missile retaliation, how would the conflict have
turned out differently?

If Pakistan had not launched digital warfare after the missile retaliation the conflict
would have turned out differently
as there would be no damage
to India's command systems;
their satellite networks would be still working along with their defence radar. Moreover,
there would be no disruption
in their encrypted communications.
In such a situation India would not easily back off and
this conflict would have continued further leading
to further casualties.

with digital warfare no further gun powder ~~used~~^{is} spent yet entire formation is rendered ineffective. Thus, Digital warfare ~~is~~^{is} proved to be more decisive as it is fought invisibly causing maximum damage
by disturbing the ~~enim~~ enemy's communication and command
system and weakening them
psychologically by instigating Panic.

QNo: 5 If the events of 10 May 2025 were to be viewed as a turning point, what does the episode reveal about the changing meaning of "Power" in the 21st century?

If the events of 10 May 2025 were to be viewed as a turning point as it shifted the inclination of Western and regional powers in favour of Pakistan after witnessing its ~~own~~ expertise in digital and military field. This episode reveals the changing meaning of Power in the 21st century that in ~~this~~ century the ~~country~~ in order to be powerful a country must build expertise in all the emerging fields of technology and should not restrict itself to traditional military methods.