

Question 4

06/10

(iii) She ~~she~~ would rather read a book than watch television. ✓

(vi) Not only was he a thief, but also a murderer. ✓

(vii) I ~~won~~ from him in the race. ✗

(i) Standing in the line, a thunderstorm could be heard by me. ~~We/they~~ could hear the thunderstorm. ✗

(ii) He had better speak the truth or he will be punished. ✓

Question 5

A

04/05

As the rain pored down over the flooded city, Aded whispered to his friend, "Did you hear what the mayor said today?" His friend looked puzzled and asked what did he say? Aded replied: "He said, we ignore warnings for years and now the city is paying the price. Those were his exact words." People around them sighed, and one man muttered, "it is strange how leaders only speak the truth when disasters strike." ✓

B

03/05

(v) The glass break into pieces. ✓

(vi) She is married ~~to~~ him. ✗

(viii) He is sitting ~~under~~ the shade of tree. ✗

(i) He persisted ~~in~~ the teeth of ... ✓

(ii) The policy was conceived ~~in~~ the auspices of ... under ✗

Question 6:

06/10

- (ii) He moved heaven and earth to find his lost daughter. ✓
- (viii) He doesn't invest real effort into achieving his goals rather just keep building castles in the air. ✓
- (vii) It is no use to cry overspill milk. You should have worked hard when it could make a difference. ✓
- (iii) These people aren't risk-takers themselves, they just prefer to sail close to the wind. ✗
- (i) I am not in favour of keeping quidges. Just throw cold water on it and move on. ✗

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word

03/10

Margaret, an old woman, used to go to the London's Embankment Train Station everyday just so she could hear "Mind the gap" in her ~~too late~~ husband, Oswald Lawrence's voice. This tape was recorded in the 1970s, and after Oswald's death, Margaret used to feel close to her husband by listening to it. In 2012, when this voice was ~~changed or removed~~ <sup>Avoid cutting</sup> replaced on the electronic recording, Margaret reached out to transport for London. When the institution came to know about her feelings, it restored her husband's voice on the Embankment Station. Now, that lovely voice is trumpeted <sup>the platform echoes once again with that beloved, love-filled voice, keeping the memory alive</sup> there every day.

Question 3:

09/20

(61) The Arab leaders changed their attitude towards Pakistan after the recent Indo-Pak conflict as they saw Pakistan's mastery in digital warfare i.e. the cyberspace. That technical expertise coupled with a disciplined conduct showcased Pakistan's strength to stand up against attacks on it.

(62) The blackout in Delhi - which occurred as Pakistan targeted selected military installations - disrupted communications. That panicked the Indians and influenced them psychologically.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

Q3) Had Pakistan not launched digital warfare after the missile retaliation, cyber units of enemy command systems would not have been disabled, satellite networks would not have been blinded, air defence radars would not have been silenced, and encrypted communications would not have been disrupted. The remaining Rafales might fly and battle field would not have shifted from skies to digital space.

Q4) Traditional military force can encounter tanks and artillery but digital warfare can do much more. In this conflict traditional military force helped shooting down five Rafales. Meanwhile, digital warfare proved more decisive because it blocked communications, disabled enemy command systems, silenced air defence radars, blinded satellite networks, disrupted encrypted communication - ultimately creating panic and fear in New Delhi.

Q5) In the 21st century, traditional military power alone is not enough. Pakistan's expertise in cyber warfare proved more decisive and prompted the nations who were previously aloof to speak in favour of Pakistan. This indicates that power, beyond the conventional might, is not only a strategic advantage but also a diplomatic one. It is power in every realm of warfare that earns a nation, protection, and pride.

Question 2:

Moral Decay and Modern Civilization

Title: Material Metrics of Progress Overshadowing
Morality and Values

05/20

Precis:

On the surface, civilisations seem to prosper but deep down they are moving backwards. Splendid constructions, grand buildings, and abundance of material goods hide how humans are increasingly lacking in values and character. Wealth commands authority and dictates human relationships. Trust among people and institutions is eroded. Intellect is utilized to plot and maneuver. Character and values like honesty, humility, and tolerance are considered things of the past. Humanity may view itself as progressing but in reality, it is

Overall idea is ok

Title needs improvement.

Grammar is ok.

Work on length of Precis ,it should be 1/3rd of original passage

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage