

Part II

Qno:2

23/80

E.5

Draft

- ① civilization → veneer of progress → insidious corrosion.
- ② Conscience has died subtly → want more
- ③ abundance → greed, temper + inventiveness + desire
- ④ values (character + moral) over coin → not virtue → home learning, compromised, material
- ⑤ only profit, not fairness, policies, affection → currency of benefit
- ⑥ Tyranny + fractures → degrade ins. + intellect → balance

Overall idea is ok.

Title needs improvement.

Grammar is ok.

Conscience → balance, now just possess more.

reach out + grasp, not inward + judge. Inward → only oracle. comfort, contentment

① moral sensibility → hollow humanity

Moral Decay and Modern Civilization

Precise :- Title: The Paradoxical Human Progress

The more the human civilization progresses, the more it grows into a shell of humanity. 04/20

In the name of prosperity, human consciousness has died under the burden of its own desires. Wealth over virtue has become the new normal. While not values are preferred over profit, humans have eroded the social bonds, degraded institutions, and enhanced vices in the process. Humans have become

Obsessed with acquiring more and more,

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage sacrificing the essential human balance.

thus, humans need to reflect and pause,
rather than they need to prioritise self-contentment over just material comforts. Only then will society rediscover moral purpose, its sparkling structures will serve only as spotlights on humanity's quiet collapse.

May humans reclaim their lost moral compass.

Qno:3

08/20

Q1:

The Arab leaders changed their indifferent attitude right after the Pathalgam conflict Follow the original passage

because of Pakistan's measured responses to Indians and the expertise with which it conducted its digital warfare tactics.

Pakistan dominated the digital and virtual world and fought the battle of narratives over India.

Q2: The blackout forced on Delhi by Pakistan greatly influenced the psychological state of India during the

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer, Follow the original passage
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

2

conflict. It disrupted the communication networks and suddenly the whole Delhi was out panicking. This was very unexpected for Indians as Pakistan did not just resort to defensive tactics. Rather, it assertively replied to Indian air base attacks and forcefully destroyed its military bases.

Ex

Qno: 3

If Pakistan had not launched digital warfare after the missile retaliation, the conflict would have escalated conventionally.

Pakistan would not have been able to win the battle of narratives, along with the conventional war. It was a well-calculated and measured response by Pakistan.

Qno: 4 The digital warfare proved more decisive than the traditional military force. The traditional warfare would have stepped up the escalation ladder

3.5

Avoid these kinds of words and forced both countries in a bloody military war. Rather, the digital warfare tactics gave Pakistan a diplomatic edge. Pakistan was able to restore the national pride with credible allies to support its stance. It was because of Pakistan's digital warfare expertise that the remaining Rafales never flew again inside Pakistan.

Qno. 5

Power in the 21st century is less about hard, military force and more about digital warfare tactics. The events of 10 May 2025 proved to be a turning point in international warfare history that had proved can be surpassed through assertive strategies and digital tactics. Power now belongs to those who have digital warfare supremacy. It is about winning hearts and minds
, not just having more gunpowder

Write Question No.

Q. He ditched at staws by saving his money at the last moment from scammers online.

Q no: 7

03/10

Margaret, an old woman, travels regularly on London Embankment station so that she could hear her dead husband Oswald Lawrence's announcement, "Mind the Gap". This was recorded in 1970 and after Oswald's death, Margaret used to feel her husband's by hearing of his voice love. When in 2012, this voice was changed by electronic recording, Margaret contacted the Transport for London. When the institution was informed about her sentiments, then they revived the voice of her husband in the Embankment station. Now ~~she~~ everyday, here the melodius voice of him is heard in

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word

Q4 :

04/10

I could ----

(i) Standing in the line, I heard a thunderstorm X

(ii) She would rather read a book than watch Television ✓

(iii) He was not only a thief but also a murderer. Not only was he murderer X

(iv) The lambs were grazing in the field. Gamboling X

(v) He would better speak the truth or he will be punished. ✓ X

Qno:5

04/05

As the rain poured down over the flooded city, Adeel whispered to his friend, "Did you hear what the Mayor said today? His friend looked puzzled and asked, "What did he say?" Adeel replied, "He said, we ignored warnings for years and now the city is paying the price." Those words exact words ✓ people around them sighed and one man muttered, "It is strange how leaders only speak the truth when disasters strike?"