Answer - ③

The conflict would have turned into escalated conventional battle if Pakistan had not launched digital warfare after the missile retaliation.

Answer ④

Traditional military force was confined to the roar of tanks or the thunder of artillery however digital warfare was an out of syllabus content that not only psychologically staggers India but also created panic state. This demonstrated that future of war lies not merely in conventional might but in ability to dominate the digital arena where battles are fought invisibly yet decided decisively.
