If the world does not attract you, If the tears roll down your eyes with in the fear of Allah, If the thought of hell scares you, If you worship Allah as one should, if the good deeds captivates you and prevent you from walking to the wrong track then you are righteous. Some are righteous and some turn into righteous. It is fortunate to become righteous. To become righteous it is a continuous process of struggle and self accountability. It takes time and one has to endure pain.
