

(i)

It has been lamented that our ordinary lives are deprived of art. We don't impart beauty of art in our works that become unsatisfied. We ought to exercise the spirit of art and beauty in our things.

(ii)

The difference between ordinary man and an artist is the awareness towards beauty. An ordinary man does not practice the art of beauty in his actions. On the other hand, artist must impart beauty to whatever he makes. He exercised the spiritual art and beauty in his work.

(iii)

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by exercising beauty in our works. The work without beauty is not satisfied, it is the waste of life. We should build relation with the beauty of the universe. To make our life and doings attractive.

(iv)

Beauty is not an ornament to life means it is an essential part of life. Beauty adds charm and pleasure in life. The work without beauty is not satisfied, it is the waste of life.

(v)

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. The art and beauty sh. . . . ?