Translation

If the world doesn't attract you, if your eyes well up with the fear of Allah, if the thought of Hell fills you with terror, if you worship Allah as you should, if you are inclined toward virtue and if you hesitate to take a step toward the wrong path then you are pious. Some are virtuous and some strive to be. Being pious is a blessing. Becoming righteous requires constant self-purification and spiritual effort. It takes time and one must endure hardships
