THE TRANSLATION

If the allure of the world fails to sway you, if tears come to your eyes out of reverence for Allah, if the mere thought of Hell instills a profound fear of God in you, if you worship Allah in the manner truly befitting His majesty, if virtue draws you near while your feet instinctively shy away from the path of vice; then indeed, you are among the righteous. Some people are born righteous while others carve their way towards it. To be righteous is a stroke of divine favour; To become righteous is the outcome of relentless self cleansing and inner struggle. It is a journey that requires time, patience and one's willingness to endure hardships along the way.
