English Test-4

Essay

Q:1) Write a paragraph of 250 words

Women empowerment

Women empowerment :

Women empowerment refers to the process of giving women the ability, confidence and freedom to make their own choices and participate fully in all areas of life socially, eg economically, politically and culturally.

In the past, women were often restricted to domestic roles and denied access to education, employment and decision making positions. However with growing awareness and changing attitudes, societies around the world are recognizing the importance of gender equality like as China and Bangladesh gave opportunities to the women in state affairs and business development. China started on this route in early 1950s, when Chairman Mao Zedong's Communist party took control of China in October 1949 and proposed creating a ~~university~~ for women's university and Bangladesh empower women to increase their participation in economic development and financial security.

Bangladesh has seen rise in women empowerment entrepreneurship as government is supporting numerous initiatives such as micro finance programs and skill development training.

Empowering women means providing equal rights and opportunities to excel education, careers and leadership.
