Q: Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

Translation:

If the world no longer pulls you toward itself, if tears come to your eyes out of fear of Allah, if the thought of Hell instills the fear of God within you, if you worship Allah the way He truly deserves to be worshipped, and when goodness draws you in while your feet hesitate to step onto ^{the} path of evil, then you are righteous. Some are born righteous; others become righteous. Being righteous is a matter of great fortune, but becoming righteous is a lifelong process of purification and spiritual struggle. It takes time and one must endure hardship along the way.
