Q. Read the following text ~~for~~ carefully & answers the Questions.

Q1 What has been lamented in the text?

The writer laments that the purpose of education has become limited to imparting information rather than teaching people how to love and what to love. Society no longer values art, aesthetic, or spiritual beauty and artists seen as a separate class, though beauty should be part of every soul. Beauty is wrongly treated as mere decoration while it is actually essential to life. Ignoring beauty leads to spiritual emptiness and social decline.

Q2. What is the difference b/w ordinary man and an artist?

The fundamental difference between an artist and an ordinary person lies in their perception and expression of beauty. An artist is someone who perceive the hidden beauty in the universe and expresses it through his creativity. For him, beauty is not something optional, it is spiritual necessity, fulfilling which is a natural part of his being. On the other hand an ordinary person is often unaware of beauty. He sees things only in terms of their utility, price, or function, without considering their aesthetic value.

Q3 How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

To make our lives beautiful and attractive, we must understand the true importance of beauty. We need to accept that beauty is not something unnecessary, but a spiritual, aesthetic and moral necessity. When we create or purchase something, we should not only consider its utility or cost, but also seek the presence of aesthetic beauty in it. Through education and training, we must develop the awareness in people that art, ethics, truth and beauty are essential parts of life. We should make it a habit to include beauty in everything we do, whether it writing, speaking making household items, or buying something, because it bring peace and satisfaction to our soul.

Q4 What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

The writer means that beauty should not be seen as something extra or decorative that we add to things just for pleasure or fashion. Rather, beauty is an essential & fundamental part of both life and human creativity. Just as moral act have a goodness to be meaningful. In the same way, a thing must have beauty to be spiritually

Complete. When we consider beauty merely as adornment, we miss its deeper purpose.

The writer asserts that beauty is like truth in thought and righteousness in action, not optional, but vital.

Q5 Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

Yes, I fully agree that art and beauty have a strong impact on both our practical lives and our moral values. Art and beauty are a source of spiritual satisfaction for humans.

When a person is engaged in things that lack beauty, their soul becomes restless, which affects their practical life, interest in work, and ethics.

Just as action without ethics is worthless, similarly work devoid of beauty also feels
