

Name : Hira Ijaz

Batch : 065

Precis Writing

Title : Money is a secondary object

For strong and thoughtful persons, making money is not the primary objective. Healthy people do like their food but they do not associate their lives with eating. Healthy minded people always enjoy their passion not the money associated with it. For all the courageous and intellectual persons, for example doctors, soldiers, clergymen and so, making money is always very important but a secondary purpose of their lives.
