

DATE: ___/___/___

The Power of Wealth over Efforts

The writer asserts that making money is difficult for an educated persons as, it is not their main objective. So officers, & clergymen and doctors prioritize their jobs and consider it as sensational winnings. However, the satisfaction of their work can not dismiss the importance of money in their lives. So, for them work is important but still as a second priority.