Translation

If the world does not attract you towards itself, if you get weary eyed thinking about the fear of Allah, if the concept of hell ignites fear in you, if you worship Allah in the way it is supposed to be done, if good deeds attracts you towards itself and you stop from stepping on the evil path, then you are a virtuous person. Some people are virtuous and some try to be virtuous. It is fortunate to be a virtuous person. To become virtuous is a matter of constant self-purification and striving. It takes time and hardships are also to be endured.
