

Translation

If the world does not pull you toward itself, if fear of Allah brings tears in your eyes, if thought of hell creates fear of Allah, if you worship Allah like He should be worshipped, if right deeds attract you and if you feel refrain from going on the path of sin then you are a pious person. Some people are naturally Pious, some become pious. Being a virtuous person is matter of good luck. Becoming virtuous takes continuous struggle and purification. It takes a lot of time and one must face difficulties.
