If worldly pleasures don't attract you, if the fear of Allah brings tears to your eyes, if the thought of afterlife prompts the fear of God's wrath in your heart, if you worship Allah the right way, if you are inclined towards doing acts of kindness and your feet hesitate walking the path of evil then you are a pious person. Some are pious, some try to appear it. Being a pious person is a matter of good fortune. ~~Being a~~ To become pious is a constant exercise of attaining self-purification and the struggle to achieve that purification. This journey takes time and is quite painful.
