

Women Empowerment

Women Empowerment means to give women freedom to achieve their social status in various fields, i.e. political, economic. It is all about ensuring to have equal rights to women. It is not only important not only for women but also for society and country that women must be empowered. Women empowerment may be achieved by various ways, including, ensuring girls to have equal access to quality education. Moreover providing opportunities for women to participate in the workforce and earn a living.

In addition to this, by giving equal participation to women in political process and decision making. Also, it is very important to make laws which protect women from different kinds of violations and discrimination. It is very crucial for achieving women empowerment that, skill learning institutes should be developed in different areas of the country which teach girls ~~different~~ various skills. By learning different skills girls transform their lives and empowered their lives through earning. There are various hurdles in achieving women empowerment which government must address in regard to ~~achieve~~ empowers women. Firstly, government should establish community centers, support groups, or online platforms where women can connect with each other and share information. Secondly, government connect women with mentors who can provide guidance and support. By addressing these hurdles, it is possible to create a just and ~~equal~~ equitable world where women can reach their full potential and contribute to the development of their communities and societies.