If the worldly life does not attract you, your eyes tear up due to the fear of Allah, the idea of Hell instils taqwa in you, you worship Allah as it should be done, righteousness fascinates you, and you hesitate to adopt the sinful path; then you are a righteous person. Some people are righteous while others pretend to be righteous. It is fortunate to be a righteous person. To become a righteous individual is a process of continuous purification and struggle. This process takes time and one has to endure difficulties as well.
