

Translation:

You are pious if you are not attracted by the world, if tears in your eyes are due to Allah's fear, if hell is horrible for you, if you worship in true means, if you avoid evil doings and righteousness attracts you. Some are righteous and some become righteous. Having piety is good luck. Becoming righteous requires continuous struggle and effort. It takes time and is difficult.