Q#1:

why most of us fail in our efforts for self improvement?

Most of us fail in our efforts for self improvement because we are too enthusiastic at the beginning of resolution but with the passage of time it becomes difficult for us to stick on those efforts of self improvement. Gradually, we ignore them and then forget them.

why is it a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody?

It is the basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because it raises the expectations of the people around us. They expect too much from us. If we slip slip and make ^{any} mistake it would be insulting for us.

Q#3:

why did the writer ^{not} carry out his ^{resolution} reaction on New year's day.

The writer took the first day of New year as the day of enjoyment. He preferred to enjoy rather than focusing on his resolution. He took New year's Eve party as an excuse. That is the reason the writer did not carry out his resolution.
