Reading And Comprehension. TEST.

Questions:

i/
Ans.

Self improvement is not achieved by most of the people because of many Reasons. The first reason is this that we don't take the lesson from the previous experiences and understand that only achievable goals must be set. Another reason is that being ambitious is good but being too much ambitious and not making a plan and giving proper time to our ambition is the hinderance in the way of self improvement. The ~~very~~ ^{last} ~~important~~ ^{major} reason of failure at self improvement is announcing your plans to other people, it not only make a fool of ourselves in front of other people when we don't act on those plans but also by announcing it to other our mind believes we have already achieved the goal.

11/

Ans. Announcing our Resolution on New Year to everyone is the fundamental mistake because we are not sure by heart that we will be able to achieve or not the Resolution. So we announce it and think that this will put an external pressure that will be helpful to uphold the Resolution but it is not the case due to many reasons and one of them is the theory which says when you announce your plans your mind believes you
