

You are pious if, you are away from world, your eyes are wet from fear of Allah, you are afraid of hell, you consciously worship Allah, you feel drawn to goodness and you are aware of evil. Someone are pious and some consider themselves pious.

Being pious is a blessing and it is a continuous process of soul purification and efforts. It is time taken and challenging.