

Day: _____

Date: _____

Name Ehtisham Ahmad Jadoon
IMS ID :- 38664 (KP PMS-003)

COMPREHENSION - 2.

Answer - 1

The author has discussed that wonders being done by the scientists and artists are result of great devotion and hardwork. They look deep into the charismatic beauty to understand it & then produce that enchanting factors in their creations. And common man does fails to understand the real value of these products that are made with high spirits.

Answer - 2.

The artist is person who polishes his skills extreme hardwork. He loves his work so much. Through his dedication, he studies natural phenomena with an artistic eye. Then he transfers the same elegance to his creations. The tasteful character in his products mirrors his devotion. While on the other hand, ordinary man lacks this element. He does admire the work of artists. He is unaware of life and its natural beauty.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Answer - 3

We can make lives our beautiful and charming by doing our works sincerely. We should do our job to satisfy our souls. ~~When we do our work~~ with spirit.

We should understand real meaning of life. Our lives should be filled with respect for others & nature. The love for nature and people will transform our lives.

Answer - 4.

The writer means that beauty should not be regarded as a mere source of ornament for of happiness and satisfaction. Beauty is an essential part of life. The attraction in things reflects the beautiful character and humble nature of maker.

Beauty is necessary in an important ingredient of life just like morality.

The absence of aesthetic in our lives is just like disregarded actions devoid of ethics.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Answer - 5

Yes, I agree that beauty affects our practical life and morals. When a person understands the real beauty of nature, then he does his work with utmost loyalty. This results in excellence in his field or craft. Similarly, ethics of such person is at high level. He respects his work and creation of God. Life without attraction will lead to dullness and pessimism.