

English Comprehension

Question No 1

The text highlights the importance of recognizing ^{art} and beauty. It delineates that we have ousted art from our lives with a vindication that an artist is the one who has some distinctive qualities. We have denied the fact that art needs practice of aesthetic capabilities.

(2)

An ordinary man takes beauty only as a source of pleasure. While an artist as a source of discovering the beauty in the universe. An ordinary man does not recognize the aesthetic activity of the spirit. On the other hand, an artist not only recognizes the beauty of his spirituality, but he also makes relation with the beauty for his spiritual satisfaction.

(3)

We can make our life beautiful and charming by exercising the aesthetic beauty. This practice is exercised by observing the universe for the satisfaction of our spiritual desires.

(4)

With the statement "Beauty is not ornament to life" the writer wants to express his idea that it is a thing that designs

the moral activity and shapes one's actions.

(5)

Yes, art and beauty affect
our practical life and morals.
It helps us in recognizing our spiritual desires. Through art and beauty we can discover the beauty of universe, by observing the relation of the spirit and the universe-