Essay: Write a Paragraph of 250 words.

1. "A thing of Beauty is a joy forever".

The given statement, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever", fully captures the profound impact of the experience of beauty on human beings. To understand the profound impact of beauty on the human soul, it is important to understand what the concept of beauty entails. The word 'Beauty' is a noun in the English language and refers to different qualities, experiences, or things that please the aesthetic sense of people. Different people can find different things pleasing to their aesthetic senses. Therefore, beauty is a subjective concept. The given statement highlights how this experience of beauty acts as a source of lasting pleasure for human beings. Beauty is not limited to natural or artificial things; intangible things such as our experiences and memories can also be considered things of beauty. Some people find beauty in nature and trees, seas, mountains, birds, and animals please them. So whenever they feel depressed, stressed and tired of their mundane life routines, they resort to nature. This experience with the beauty of nature brings them joy and lightens their mood every time. Similarly, some people find beauty in materialistic or artificial things. So whenever they encounter something beautiful made by man, it brings them joy. Moreover, some experiences and memories in our life, related to our childhood or important moments in our life, whenever come to our mind, they act as a source of of lasting pleasure. Studies have also shown that encounter with both tangible and intangible beautiful things uplifts one's mood and bring happiness. Therefore, things of beauty act as a source lasting pleasure for humans.
