

AMNA MANZOOK

BATCH-077.

What is difference between an ordinary man and an artist?

An artist is a person who knows the beauty of the universe more than an ordinary man. To know about the beauty of universe, an artist makes rigorous efforts and explores the universe. ~~It~~ It is only after sincere endeavours that an artist is able to demonstrate the beauty in his art. On the other hand, an ordinary man ~~who~~ doesn't exercise art in life.

2. How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

According to the author of Passage.

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by incorporating aesthetic activity in our daily life. We need to exercise aesthetic activity in whatever we do just like an artist does. ~~Only~~ Only after incorporating building self beauty in work, we can make

A. P. A.

Q3. What does the writer mean.... "Beauty is not...."

By the phrase "Beauty is not an ornament to life", the author means that beauty shouldn't be taken as an entity of decoration, in fact it should be made ^{an} ~~an~~ integral part and parcel of life.

Beauty should be incorporated in our daily actions. ^{It must be weaved in our actions}

Q4. What has been lamented in Text?

The author has lamented in the text that art and aesthetic activity has no place in life of an ordinary man.

The ordinary man deems beauty as a decorative thing that can be bought (for money), rather than a part and parcel of daily activities. This is made life of an ordinary man meaningless and dull.