

|        |       |
|--------|-------|
| AQSA   | Omer  |
| Batch  | 66    |
| LMS ID | 37946 |

Precis'

Passion is superior than money

· Making money is not the chief object of a well-educated man. He always preferred to enjoy the good sensations over money. A same minded people prefer their passion rather than money.

Like a soldier whose main object to win, or a clergyman to preach, a doctor always prefer their work first because passion is more important than money.