English Translation

If you do not find attraction in the world, if fear of God brings tear to your eyes, if thinking about the hell sends shivers down your spine, if you worship Allah with utmost reverence, if you are inclined towards virtue and you restrain yourself from moving towards the evil, then you are righteous. Some have an innate sense of virtue, others are shaped into righteousness over the course of time. Being virtuous is a blessing. Becoming virtuous is a constant struggle of self purification and self rejection. This is a test of perseverance and endurance.
