Question:-

Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/ figurative expression.

Translation:-

If the world fails to tempt you, if the dread of Allah causes tears in your eyes, if the notion of hell makes you fearful of God, if you worship God as you should, if virtue takes you in and prevents you from following the road of evil, then you are virtuous. Some people are righteous and others become righteous. Being virtuous is a sort of good fortune. Becoming virtuous requires continuous purging and hard working. It takes time and one has to tolerate the sufferings.
