

English Essay (Paragraph Writing)

Women Empowerment.

Mens and womens are like a two wheels of cast, without one the cast cannot move. Similarly if we want to grow as a nation we have to empower our Womens as like mens. Women empowerment begins with the education, which plays a vital role in transforming individuals as well as communities. When womens are educated, they know their rights and opportunities. Education will help them to build leadership roles, employment opportunities and decision making power. An educated woman not only uplift herself but also uplift family which contribute to the nation uplift, which creates a ripple effect on progress and developments. If we take the example of our country from past few decades womens are contributing equal to mens, whether it is in field of armed forces, doctor, engineers, politicians and etc. Empowering women is not about gender equality, it is necessary step to sustainable development.
