Paragraph Topic:

"A thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever"

A thing of beauty is a joy forever means that beautiful things provide lasting joy. Here beauty does not only refer to physical appearance of things rather more than that and things refers to works of art. The works of art only reflect beauty when it is made with the perception of beauty, only then their beauty will remain forever. For example there are number of artists in the world but very few are still discussed, such as The Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci is the painting (of) made in around 1503 but its beauty, its admiration still present like it is the painting of today. Similarly the works of great literary figures, such as Dante, Shakespeare, Keats, Chales Dickens, Mark Twain etc, provides same affect of joy, calm and sorrow as it is written for (t^x) present scenario. Moreover, the great civilisations of world (s^x) like Mesopotamia, Egypt, Indus Valley, Rome, Maya Civilization etc are destroyed hundreds of years ago, but their beauty is still discussed and appreciated today. It is because these civilisations (w^ere) contained beautiful things such as unique cultures, technologies and systems that continue to influence the world today. Therefore, to make things for instance, to make morals, societies, or even civilisations beautiful one has to develop the ability and skill to perceive beauty which is beyond the physical appearance rather more than that.
