

Title: Healthy minded people prioritize work over Money - well educated, brave and Intellectual man's Primary objective is not money, but only to make his dinner ^{from it}. All Healthy minded people like money but it is not main objective. As the main goal of a Soldier is to fight, he still fight when he was not paid. A clergyman do not preach to earn money. In the same way, As doctors like money but a good doctor can lose his money to cure his patient. No doubt money is important but for a brave man his work always comes first.
