Q Write a Paragraph of 250 words:

Topic: "A thing of beauty is a joy forever"

The famous line "A thing of beauty is a joy forever" was written by the English poet John Keats. This means that anything truly beautiful brings happiness that lasts for a long time. Beauty is not just outward appearance. It can be found in nature, art, and good human behavior. For example, the sight of a sunset, a quiet garden, or a sky full of stars can make a person feel peaceful and happy. These things help one feel better when he is tired or sad. In the same way, beautiful works of art, poetry, and music also bring lasting joy. People still enjoy old painting and classic poems because their beauty never fades. Beauty also exists inside people. A kind heart, helpful nature and honest action are all forms of inner beauty. These qualities are remembered more than how someone looks.

When a person is caring and gentle, he remembered for a long time. Beauty in any form, natural, artistic, or moral gives comfort, hope, and emotional strength. Unlike material things, which lose value over time, beauty becomes more meaningful. It touches hearts and stays in one's memory. In Conclusion Keats said right that beauty is forever. Real beauty leaves a lasting effect on our minds and souls, making life richer and more meaningful.
