

Translation

If the word do not appeal you, if fear of God bring tears in your eyes, if thought of Hell stirs reverence in your heart, if you worship God as he truly deserves to be worshiped, and if your feet ~~are~~ halt to go on the Evil's path, then you are pious. Some are born pious, ~~at~~ while others grow up into piety. It is fortunate to be pious, and it is a continuous journey of spiritual refinement. It takes time, and to endure hardships during the journey.
