If the world doesnot attract you , if the fear of Allah brings tears to your eyes , if the very thought of hell instills fear in you , if you wonship Allah as He ought to be worshipped , and if you incline towards righteousness and stay away from the path of evil then you are pious . Some are born pious , other becomes pious . Being pious is a matter of divine blessing . Becoming pious is a continuous process of self-purification and striving . It takes time and one must endure hardships in this process .
