If the world ^{does not} attract you, if the fear of Allah brings tears to your eyes, if the very thought of hell instills fear in you, if you worship Allah as He ought to be worshipped, and if you incline towards righteousness and stay away from the path of evil then you are pious. Some ^{others become} are born pious, others becomes pious. Being pious is a matter of divine blessing. Becoming pious is a continuous process of self-purification and striving. It takes time and one must endure hardships in this process.
