BATCH 66

Q 01 → What has been lamented in the text?

The text laments that we have lost beauty and art in ordinary life. For now art is being practiced by few artists and sculptors. This happens because we no longer recognize the beauty of art. Art is a spiritual beauty.

Q 02 → What is the difference between ordinary man & artist?

what are you trying to say???

An artist is a man who is aware of artistic beauty. who shape ~~their~~ inner beauty in the sculpture or prints he made. While an ordinary did not know. An artist practiced art more precisely than an ordinary man.

Q 03 → How can we make our life beautiful and charming?

We can make our life beautiful and charming by recognizing, ~~and~~ practicing esthetic activity and valuing aesthetic activity in all aspects of life. Demanding beauty and art in things we buy. We should do everything for our spiritual and inner happiness.

Q 04 → What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament of life?"

By saying this "Beauty is not an ornament of life" writer means that beauty ~~is~~ a basic ^{essential} part of life.

not just an ornament. answer is too short and answer must not start indirectly

Q 05 → Do art and beauty effect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree?

Yes art and beauty can effect our practical life and morals. By recognizing and valuing aesthetic activity
